Da Lat Cloud Hunting & Sunrise Map

Seeing a sea of clouds at dawn is Da Lat's signature experience. Here are 8 places to watch it — from the lake in town to the Cau Dat tea hills — with one-tap directions. Our shop opens at 4:30 am, in time for sunrise.

● Easy on an electric scooter ● Better on a Honda Air Blade 125cc (hills / longer ride)

Directions are true; distances are compressed so far spots fit on the page.

When are the clouds best?

- Season — rainy months (about June–August) give the most clouds; cold mornings at the end of the year are also good
- Time — be there 4:30–6:30, before and just after sunrise
- Weather — best after a rainy night with still air
- Not every day — on dry, windy mornings there may be no clouds at all

Tips for a dawn ride

- Leave in the dark: ride slowly, lights on, and watch for fog.
- Bring a warm jacket and gloves — mornings are cold.
- Da Phu Hill: the last part is steep — park at the bottom and walk up.
- Lang Biang's Radar Peak opens at 7:30 — go for morning views rather than sunrise.
