Da Lat Wild Sunflower Map (Dã Quỳ)

Every year from late October to December, wild sunflowers (dã quỳ) turn Da Lat's roadsides yellow. Here are 9 places to see them — 5 in or near town and 4 classic scooter roads — with one-tap directions.

● Easy on an electric scooter ● Better on a Honda Air Blade 125cc (hills / longer ride)

Directions are true; distances are compressed so far spots fit on the page.

When do they bloom?

- Start — late October
- Peak — November
- End — December, earlier after heavy rain
- Best light — 7:00–10:00 (dew on the petals) and 15:00–17:00

Tips for the flower roads

- Fill up the tank before leaving town — few gas stations on the passes.
- Pull fully off the road to take photos; never stop on a bend.
- Don't pick the flowers or walk into private fields.
- Morning fog on the passes: ride slowly with lights on.
